

"This is a great moment, but the way I hold a pencil is 'WEIRD' (it's not just weird). The normal way is

but she uses

I hold HUNDREDS of these PENCILS.

Although the word is weird, this drawing never thought that there was anyone but herself. But sometimes it turns out that "outsiders" sometimes look through the same way I do! When I found out I was so excited I could never! This just goes to show that if you hold a pencil like this, you could also receive a manuscript! Try it and see!

"We have to finally master it, though."
